Enterprise-ready generative AI

Firefly for enterprise plans enable large organizations to confidently adopt generative AI technology and meet surging content demands while delivering exceptional customer experiences.

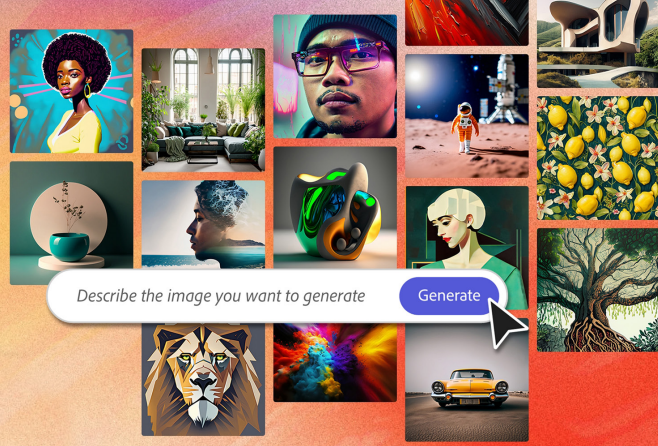

Firefly is designed to be commercially safe, and enterprises may obtain an IP indemnity from Adobe for content generated by select Firefly-powered workflows.* We plan to enable brands to custom train Firefly and generate content in their unique style.

Adobe Express and Firefly enables creative and marketing teams to easily generate beautiful, ready-to-share content:

- Adobe Express site license
- Integrated Firefly-powered features
- IP indemnification*
- Firefly web app

IP indemnification is also available through certain Creative Cloud plans.*

*Opportunity to obtain an IP indemnity from Adobe for content generated by select Firefly-powered workflows under certain Adobe offers. Terms will apply.
